

*H*ave the wedding you've been dreaming of in Wilder Park. The enchanting formal garden is available for your special day, providing an elegant setting for your ceremony. Seasonal blossoms bloom throughout the garden, while surrounding trees and bushes create the intimate environment you've been looking for.

Reserving Your Date

Reservations are required to hold the garden for your ceremony, and must be made through the Elmhurst Park District with a signed contract and a $400 deposit. Full payment is due 30 days prior to your event date. Cancellations must be made in writing and received at least 30 days prior to your event date. Refunds will be issued for cancelled dates that are re-booked.

Please note: Wilder Park is open to the public, therefore complete privacy cannot be guaranteed. Alcohol consumption is strictly prohibited without a special permit.

WEDDINGS IN WILDER PARK

You are invited...

Owned and operated by the Elmhurst Park District, the Wilder Park Formal Garden consists of exquisite herb gardens, seasonal displays, perennial beds, and a paved walkway. The sunken ceremony garden seats up to 130 guests and will provide a classic setting for your special day. Garden weddings in Wilder Park are available each year between the months of May and October, on Friday evenings and weekends.

Wedding Package

Wedding packages include a 40' hexagon tent, 50 white chairs for guest seating, on-site staff to assist with your needs, and an engraved paver brick to be placed within Elizabeth's Friendship Walk to commemorate your wedding day. The cost of a wedding package starts at $700 based on a two-hour maximum. Additional chairs may be requested for an added fee.

Photos in the Garden

The Wilder Park Formal Garden is the perfect backdrop to make your wedding photos shine. Hourly rentals of the garden are available at a rate of $50 per hour.

Receptions

Special reception options are available at the adjacent Wilder Mansion and off-site at the Sugar Creek Golf Course to complete your event. Contact the wedding coordinator at 630.993.8186 to discover the perfect reception option for you.
